Monkeys Tales

JANUARY 2011

What's Happening in January?

The Monkeys will be distinguishing sizes small, medium, large using bears as counters.
The monkeys will be using animal matching game to practice matching skills using animals picture.

Monkeys will be exploring new words by practicing dinosaurs names.

Monkeys will play dentist a patient game to role play a visit to the dentist.

We will be using cotton balls to make snowballs while exploring texture while painting.

Monkeys will be using ice cubes a tool to created painting.

We will be exploring water as we use our sensory table to give dinosaur a bath.
